YOUTH

BLUSH

Where the soft beige and white come together with the elegant rose gandles and legs, Blush has a highly modular wardrobe which adopts itself to different contexts and styles.

The side of the wardrobe can be completed with additional unit that is equipped with shelves and a hanger, giving functionality to the wardrobe and lightening the volume.

BRERA

For the slightly older child, incorporating modern styling and obtrusive touches allowing the character of the individual to shine through. It provides a perfect backdrop for personalisation, and Tepe Home provides a multitude of accessories to help.

The modules of the set share the same leg-design, bringing a sense of unity to the room.

AMARA

Undeniably positive & stylish

It is sleek and modern, gives happiness and a feel like you are floating in your room.

Inspired by modern trends in materials and figures, Amara Collection is designed both for functionality and visual pleasure while presenting the harmony of white and calming pink colours with the combination of patterned laminated melamine.

Lena is the best option, if there is a need of optional modules in different sizes which can comply with the small-sized rooms.

GRAY

Brilliant example of when the urban meets nature

Its appeal comes from its sense of authoritative simplicity. The color palette comprises a series of earth tones, light browns and slate grey. The surfaces are veneered oak, the edges trimmed in a contrasting and darker tones. The cabinet handles and the headboard follow the same theme, everything blended in a Zen-like harmony to create an overriding air of calm.

COOPER

You can upgrade your child's bedroom with the bold and sporty Cooper Set which has been created with young people in mind making sure to keep an eye on personality and style.

It injects a sense of energy into the Tepe Home Youth Collection, capturing the spirit of the age-range to which it is targeted.

COCO

Pastoral & Poetic

Coco Youth has been inspired by the current fashion of hippie-chic, a smart interpretation of vintage styles and unabashed romanticism.

The Coco juvenile suite has a freshness to it, incorporating a mix of the simple and the sleek, blending creativity with functionality.

Combining a bed, wardrobe, chest of drawers, nightstand, bookshelves, and a writing desk, the Coco provides a perfect setting for the creative mind.
